

Executive	Create a series of political cartoons highlighting major issues under the current president's or governor's tenure.	Role playing either the president or the governor, describe your duties and some of the main issues you've faced.	Analyze the campaign platforms for two main candidates in a presidential or gubernatorial campaign. Present the findings in a product of your choice.
Legislative	Develop a campaign platform for the ideal legislative candidate. Present it in a multimedia format.	In a monologue with your local legislator listening, argue whether a particular bill should be passed.	Write a script for a mock Senate Congressional hearing.
Judicial	Observe a court proceeding and record your impressions as either a journalist covering the case or the court illustrator.	Prepare and present the opening argument for a case of your choice.	Read the decision of a controversial court case. Write an opinion piece either agreeing or disagreeing with the outcome.

Figure 7.18. Think-Tac-Toe: Branches of Government: More challenging