

Parent Institute

Parenting Arizona's Gifted:

A Day of Information and Inspiration

Sponsored by Arizona Association for Gifted and Talented

- What: Conference on parenting gifted children
Who: for Arizona's parents, grandparents, & educators
Date: Saturday, April 26th, 2008
Time: 10 AM - 4 PM (resource fair opens at 9 AM)
Place: Center for Educational Excellence, Tempe, AZ
1700 E. Elliot Rd. #9 (east of I-10, west of loop 101)
Price: $25 per person, sack lunch provided pre-registration required (www.aagtparentday.com)
Hurry Space is Limited

☆ Expert speakers

- Characteristics of high ability children
- Finding a good educational fit
- Social and emotional needs
- Advocating for your gifted student
- Parenting tips by age group - preschool/ elementary /MS /HS

☆ Resource fair

- After-school and summer programs
- articles to take home
- local gifted programs and educational alternatives
- parent groups and experts

☆ Books, games, and more for purchase from invited vendors

☆ Lunch with other parents and educators while you browse

☆ Optional children's program includes "The Homework Doc", creative, math/science and other activities to choose from

☆ Certified childcare for ages 2 1/2 (and potty trained) to 6

☆ Spanish sessions and resources too

www.aagtparentday.com