

Meeting the Unique Needs of Diverse Gifted Students with Powerful Strategies

THURSDAY, JUNE 3, 2021 • 8:30 AM - 4:30 PM

THREE WAYS TO ATTEND

Onsite In Person Option - Attend with educators in person at Barry Goldwater High School in Phoenix. (7 Hours PD)

Virtual and Synchronous - Gather with a group to watch together remotely or watch from the comfort of your own home. (7 Hours PD)

Asynchronous | Self-paced - This option will give you access to recorded sessions through August 31 to watch and learn at your own pace. (4 Hours PD)

Sessions Will Include:

Using Strength-Based Pedagogy to Engage and Challenge 2E Students

Talent Denied and Talent Lost: Challenges and Compromises of Gifted Girls and Women

The Schoolwide Enrichment Model

Challenging Talented Readers

MEMBER RATE

NON-MEMBER RATE

$40

$55

BOGO SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITY:

Dr. Reis is sponsoring free scholarships to the first 20 enrollees who enroll 2 for 1. Only one Buy One Get One Free is offered per school district. Please email director@azgifted.com to register your first two attendees under this opportunity.

A day of learning with Dr. Sally Reis of the University of Connecticut.

Dr. Reis is co-author of The Schoolwide Enrichment Model, The Secondary Triad Model, Dilemmas in Talent Development in the Middle Years, and a book published in 1998 about women's talent development entitled Work Left Undone: Choices and Compromises of Talented Females. Dr. Reis will be virtually presenting powerful strategies and facilitating group discussions throughout the day for classroom application.